Good morning,

On Tuesday, January 30th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a proposal to create a new certificate in Contemporary Art and Curatorial Practice.

I am pleased to report that the certificate has been unanimously approved with one comment, one contingency, and one recommendation:

- Comment: The Subcommittee notes that HISTART 8641 is still cross-listed with COMPSTD 8891. However, COMPSTD 8891 has been withdrawn and is no longer a course. The Subcommittee asks that the unit submit a course change request via curriculum.osu.edu for HISTART 8641 and remove the cross-listing.
- Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the unit seek concurrence from the Department of Arts Administration, Education, and Policy (AAEP).
- Recommendation: On the right-hand side of the advising sheet, there is still a reference to the certificate's old title of "Curatorial Studies". The Subcommittee recommends removing this reference for clarity.

I will return the certificate to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Subcommittee's feedback.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
