Good afternoon,

On February 13th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new course proposal for Classics 2206.

I am pleased to report that the proposal was unanimously approved with one contingency:

- Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the department seek concurrence from the Department of History.

I will return Classics 2206 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the feedback above.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
