Good afternoon,

On Tuesday, March 19th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new course request for Slavic 2345.20.

I am pleased to report that the Subcommittee unanimously approved the request with three contingencies and two recommendations:

- Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the reference and ELOs to this course fulfilling GEL Diversity – Social Diversity in the U.S. be removed from the course syllabus on page 2. The course is only approved for the Global Studies diversity category of the GEL program.
- Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the phrase “including all decimal suffixes” be included within the curriculum map provided, given that the department is now decimalizing this course.
- Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the Religious Accommodation statement be updated within the course syllabus. On March 1st, 2024, the Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee updated the required statement to be in compliance with the new statement, which was provided by the Office of Undergraduate Education and vetted by the Office of Legal Affairs. The newly updated statement has been updated on the syllabus elements page of the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website.
- Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends updating the course calendar with more information to students, particularly adding how the course readings, activities, and assignments link back to and reflect upon an objective or GE ELO. They recommend, if it is helpful, utilizing Slavic 3711 as an example, as that course has a particularly strong course calendar, which is a benefit to students. Additionally, they would like to kindly point out that the topic for week 6 (the week of February 13th) appears to have been accidentally deleted.
- Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends updating the Title IX statement, as found on page 9 of the syllabus. The Title IX coordinator for the university has changed and is no longer Kellie Brennan. The most up-to-date Title IX statement can be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website.

I will return Slavic 2345.20 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Subcommittee’s feedback.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,

Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
