Comments

- Syllabus uploaded on behalf of the department RLS (by Steele,Rachel Lea on 03/08/2024 03:11 PM)
- Hello, since this will be a specific offering of a course that has existed for a long time in its non-decimalized version, why not also attach the GEL Literature and GEL Diversity-Global Studies to the course (in case someone still needs GEL credit for the course)?

Hi Joe,

You actually have to check off those 2 GEL categories on the form in curriculum.osu.edu. Please check off, General Education course above and then check off the two specific GEL categories under that. OK? Unfortunately, I cannot do this for you. (by Vankeerbergen,Bernadette Chantal on 02/28/2024 01:18 PM)
- We taught 2345 on rotating topics (Balkan literature, Ukrainian literature, etc) in the past. For recognizability purposes, we would like to provide decimal number versions with unique names. The course remains the same as before and we would like to request maintaining the GE status as it was before.

The course is an elective for the Slavic and East European Minor.

- We have updated to include these GELs, thank you for the suggestion! (by Ernst,Joseph on 02/28/2024 10:51 AM)

Descriptions of major course assignments

Class Participation

Description: Regular, meaningful participation is essential to your success in this course. Class time will often be active: expect to be moving, writing, discussing, and working through interpretative queries each day. Come to class having carefully and thoughtfully done the assigned reading or viewing so that you are prepared to engage in these activities. This class is designed to respect the fact that some students find some forms of participation easier to engage in than other forms, due to differing personalities, cultural upbringings, internalized patterns of social interaction, etc. Thus, our class time will be structured to allow for many different forms of participation. All participation that shows you to be prepared for class and engaged in learning while being respectful of the instructor and your classmates will count toward your grade. The participation grade takes into account preparation for class, attentive listening (without getting buried in your electronic devices), and active and respectful engagement in class discussions and activities. Regular attendance is a prerequisite. You will receive one participation grade for the first half of the semester and one for the second half. In order to receive each participation grade, you will be required to fill out a short reflection questionnaire on Carmen.

Ukraine Reflection Essay

Description: At the beginning of the semester, you will write one fairly informal Ukraine Reflection Essay on your perceptions of Ukraine and expectations for your learning this semester.

Academic integrity and collaboration: Collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Discussion Prompts (5)

Description: The five discussion prompts are 250–400 word comments on the assigned readings or viewings, submitted in advance of class and designed to prepare you for class and for the exams. You may choose when in the semester to write your prompts, but you must have submitted two by the end of February. Submit each prompt on Carmen by 9am on the morning of the class period at which we discuss the content it addresses so that I can look it over before class.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Exams (3)

Description: You will have three exams to assess your learning, all of which will be completed at home in an MS Word document. These exams will consist of short-response and short-essay questions, and you may reference course materials—though you may not collaborate with other people—when taking them. The exams will be made available to you one week before they are due. Note that they are not timed.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Semester Reflection Essay

Description: Your small final assignment for the course is a short Semester Reflection Essay. This is an exercise in metacognition in which you reflect on something you learned this semester that you want to remember in the future.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Late assignments

I fully understand that students are busy people with complex lives, and I am generally flexible with deadlines, so long as students are in contact with me about their needs. For any deadline in this class you may request a 48-hour deadline extension via a Google form that is linked on our Carmen homepage. All deadline requests that go through this form are automatically granted. You do not need to disclose to me the reasons for your extension request if you do not want to. If you require an extension of more than 48 hours, please contact me directly. Note that you will not see a change to the deadline you see in Carmen, but if you submit the form, you may trust that I have extended your deadline.

OTHER COURSE POLICIES

Discussion and communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in class discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. A more conversational tone is fine for non-academic topics.
- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online.
- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your academic posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the Carmen discussion.

Academic integrity policy

See Descriptions of major course assignments, above, for my specific guidelines about collaboration and academic integrity in the context of this online class.

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by university rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the university's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.

Statement on Title IX

“The University administration, faculty, staff, student employees, and volunteers are responsible for assuring that the University maintains an environment for work and study free from sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is unlawful and impedes the realization of the University’s mission of distinction in education, scholarship, and service. Sexual harassment violates the dignity of individuals and will not be tolerated. The University community seeks to eliminate sexual harassment through education and by encouraging faculty, staff, student employees, and volunteers to report concerns or complaints. Prompt corrective measures will be taken to stop sexual harassment whenever it occurs” (Source: <http://hr.osu.edu/policy/policy115.pdf>)

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

I will seek to keep information you share private to the greatest extent possible. However, I am required to share information regarding sexual misconduct or information about a crime that may have occurred on Ohio State’s campus with the University. Students may speak to someone confidentially by calling 1-866-294-9350 or through the Ohio State Anonymous Reporting Line.

Your mental health

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614-292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. The instructor is then responsible for scheduling an alternative time and date for the course requirement, which may be before or after the original time and date of the course requirement. These alternative accommodations will remain confidential. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that all course assignments are completed.
