Good afternoon,

On Tuesday, Nov. 26th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a course change proposal for Greek 6892

The Subcommittee unanimously approved the request with one contingency and two recommendations:

- The Subcommittee asks that the required Religious Accommodations statement be included within the course syllabus, as this statement is a requirement of all syllabi. The statement can be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website.
- The Subcommittee recommends providing additional information on the course assignments, especially the research paper, found on page 2 of the syllabus. Specifically, they recommend providing more information on the specific requirements of each assignment and the process for students to work with the instructor to determine their research paper topic. Additionally, p. 2 mentions the oral exam will be on Roman history. The Subcommittee assumed this was a typo leftover from the Latin syllabus.
- The Subcommittee recommends updating several course policy statements, as they have been recently updated. All statements can be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website:
 - Student Life – Disability Services (page 6 of the syllabus)
 - Mental Health (pages 5 & 6 of the syllabus)
 - Diversity (page 5 of the syllabus)

As a reminder, contingencies (in bold above) must be addressed and resubmitted via curriculum.osu.edu before this course can move forward in the approval process to the Graduate School. Recommendations (in italics above) should be implemented when the course is next taught. I will return Greek 6892 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Subcommittee's requests.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Subcommittee, please feel free to contact Tom Dugdalee (faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
