Good afternoon,

On Friday, January 17th, the Themes II Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new GEN Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World and High-Impact Practice: Research & Creative Inquiry request for HDF5 4570.

At this time, the reviewing faculty voted to not include this course within the General Education program. Please see below for next steps and options for moving forward:

- The reviewing faculty ask that the course instructor and/or department reach out and communicate with Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies Meg Daly.66. They believe that having a conversation with Meg about this course will be an appropriate avenue to discuss next steps related to this proposal and how it may best fit within the General Education program.

I will return the course via curriculum.osu.edu to the department.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to Lisa Cravens-Brown, faculty Chair of the Themes II Subcommittee, Jessica Krok-Schoen, faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World, or me should you have any questions.

Additionally, I have cc'd Meg Daly to this email to help facilitate any conversation the department would like to have with her.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
