Good afternoon,

On Friday, January 24th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new course proposal for Music 6850.

The Subcommittee unanimously approved the request with one comment and two recommendations:

- a) Comment: The Subcommittee asks that the department rephrase the course's prerequisite in curriculum.osu.edu (under "Prerequisites and Exclusions; prerequisites/corequisites) to "graduate standing in the School of Music and Permission of Instructor", as graduate students do not have majors. [NOTE: This has already been addressed by the School of Music and the ASCCAS Staff].
 - b) Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends that the department include in the syllabus a brief explanation of what constitutes a "satisfactory" grade in each of the course's assignments.
 - c) Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends that the department remove or review the links to the GTA Toolkit, Midterm Survey, and other resources from the Drake Institute (syllabus p. 2-3), as many of the links are currently broken.
- As a reminder, recommendations (in italics above) should be implemented when the course is next taught. Music 6850 will continue through the approval process to the Graduate School.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Subcommittee, please feel free to contact Laura Podalsky (faculty Chair of the A&H 1 Subcommittee; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
