Good afternoon,

On Friday, February 7th, the Arts and Humanities 2 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a proposal for Music 7770 to be approved for Distance Learning.

The Subcommittee unanimously approved the request with two recommendations and one comment:

1. Comment: The Subcommittee appreciates the clear and well-constructed syllabus that was provided by the School of Music.
2. Recommendation: The Subcommittee notes that the in-person syllabus (p. 2-3) contains a more detailed description of the final paper assignment, and they recommend that this language be included in the online syllabus as well.
3. Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends that the statement on pg. 14 of the syllabus be titled "Religious Accommodations" rather than "Religious Holidays", per University requirements.

As a reminder, recommendations (in italics above) should be implemented when the course is next taught. Music 7770 will continue through the approval process to the Graduate School. Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Subcommittee, please feel free to contact Laura Podalsky (faculty Chair of the A&H 2 Subcommittee; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
