Good morning,

On Friday, February 28th, the Themes II Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a GEN Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World request for Political Science 3620.

I am pleased to report that the Subcommittee unanimously approved the proposal with two contingencies and one recommendation:

- Contingency: The Subcommittee would like to see more information in the course syllabus surrounding how Theme ELO 2.2 will be met. Currently, it is unclear to them (and, therefore, to students) how the students will satisfy this ELO requirement.
- Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the course more thoroughly weave elements of the Theme (citizenship, diversity, and justice) into the course syllabus, especially the course topics and assignments. This will allow students to more thoroughly and explicitly engage with the Theme category.
- Recommendation: The reviewing faculty recommend providing information from the GEN Theme submission form within the course syllabus, as this would be helpful information for students to see how they will meet the GEN Theme ELOs.

I will return the proposal via curriculum.osu.edu to allow you to address this feedback in a revision.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to Lisa Cravens-Brown, faculty Chair of the Themes II Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
