Academic Accommodations

The university strives to maintain a healthy and accessible environment to support student learning in and out of the classroom. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic, or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion.

If you are ill and need to miss class, including if you are staying home and away from others while experiencing symptoms of a viral infection or fever, please let me know immediately. In cases where illness interacts with an underlying medical condition, please consult with Student Life Disability Services to request reasonable accommodations. You can connect with them at slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; or slds.osu.edu.

Religious Accommodations

Ohio State has had a longstanding practice of making reasonable academic accommodations for students' religious beliefs and practices in accordance with applicable law. In 2023, Ohio State updated its practice to align with new state legislation. Under this new provision, students must be in early communication with their instructors regarding any known accommodation requests for religious beliefs and practices, providing notice of specific dates for which they request alternative accommodations within 14 days after the first instructional day of the course. Instructors in turn shall not question the sincerity of a student's religious or spiritual belief system in reviewing such requests and shall keep requests for accommodations confidential.

With sufficient notice, instructors will provide students with reasonable alternative accommodations with regard to examinations and other academic requirements with respect to students' sincerely held religious beliefs and practices by allowing up to three absences each semester for the student to attend or participate in religious activities. Examples of religious accommodations can include, but are not limited to, rescheduling an exam, altering the time of a student's presentation, allowing make-up assignments to substitute for missed class work, or flexibility in due dates or research responsibilities. If concerns arise about a requested accommodation, instructors are to consult their tenure initiating unit head for assistance.

A student's request for time off shall be provided if the student's sincerely held religious belief or practice severely affects the student's ability to take an exam or meet an academic requirement and the student has notified their instructor, in writing during the first 14 days after the course begins, of the date of each absence. Although students are required to provide notice within the first 14 days after a course begins, instructors are strongly encouraged to work with the student to provide a reasonable accommodation if a request is made outside the notice period. A student may not be penalized for an absence approved under this policy. If students have questions or disputes related to academic accommodations, they should contact their course instructor, and then their department or college office. For questions or to report discrimination or harassment based on religion, individuals should contact the Office of Institutional Equity. (Policy: Religious Holidays, Holy Days and Observances)

Mental Health

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614- 292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th floor of the Younkin Success Center and the 10th floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24 hour emergency help is also available 24/7 by dialing 988 to reach the Suicide and Crisis Lifeline.

Academic Integrity

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-48.7 \(B\)). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct.

Students who enroll at Ohio State agree to abide by the Code of Student Conduct, which is available at <http://trustees.osu.edu/assets/files/RuleBook/CodeStudentConduct.pdf>. The Code of Student Conduct has been established to foster and protect the core missions of the University, to foster the scholarly and civic development of the University's students in a safe and secure learning environment, and to protect the people, properties and processes that support the University and its missions. Preservation of academic freedom and free and open exchange of ideas and opinions for all members of the University are central to these missions. Each student is responsible for being familiar with the rules and regulations of The Ohio State University, including those regarding information technology and computer use (<https://ocio.osu.edu/sites/default/files/assets/Policies/Responsible-Use-of-University-Computing-and-Network-Resources-Policy.pdf>) and residence halls (<http://housing.osu.edu/living-on-campus/fees-contracts-policies/residential-living-handbook-code-student-conduct>).

Plagiarism is the act of stealing the ideas and/or the expressions of another and representing them as your own. It is a form of cheating and a kind of academic misconduct, which can incur severe penalties. It is important, therefore, that you understand what it consists of, so that you will not unwittingly jeopardize your college career. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to word-for-word copying of someone else's work, in whole or in part, without acknowledgment. Changing a few words of another's composition, omitting a few sentences, or changing their order does not constitute original composition. If you have any doubts about the originality of a paper or assignment, see your instructor before you turn it in. At a minimum, papers exhibiting evidence of plagiarism will be assigned a grade of zero; the Committee on Academic Misconduct might impose additional sanctions.

Participation

As is the case with most university courses, active participation in class is expected and includes arriving on time and staying for the duration of the class meeting, being prepared for class, paying attention to the contributions of other members of the class and to the course facilitator, and contributing to class discussions. During class, please do not text, email, read the newspaper, study for this or other courses, engage in side conversations, sleep, or engage in similar activities. In order to minimize class disruption, if you bring an electronic device into the class, make sure it is set to non-audible notification. Excused absences include illnesses for which you have a doctor's note or other documented extenuating circumstances.

Grading

History 3190 is graded A-E. Students are expected to complete all assignments by the published due dates. Points will be deducted for late work—two percent for the first minute late and two percent per hour thereafter—except in documented emergency cases.

Brief Description of Assignments

Weekly Briefs (30 total points; ten at 3 points each; due each Friday at 11:59 a.m., from September 5 to December 12, uploaded to Carmen)

Each week during the term, you will write brief responses (300 – 500 words) about our class discussion and, when applicable, guest speakers from our Wednesday meeting. Details of and rubrics for the briefs will be posted on Carmen and reviewed in class.

Self-Reflection and Goals Statement (5 points; due by 11:59 p.m. September 2, uploaded to Carmen)

Complete the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator online (<https://www.humanmetrics.com/personality/test>) and reflect on the results and your reaction to them (expectations, recommended careers, differences from previous assessments that you might have taken) in roughly 200 words. In addition, write approximately 200 words on your career goals and how, if at all, they have changed over time and how your current plans have shaped—and been shaped by—your academic work and past experiences.

Resume Review (5 points; due in class September 10)

Examine best practices and templates available at <https://asccareersuccess.osu.edu/resume-templates> and prepare or polish your resume. Bring your resume to class for a peer review. You might prepare with a resume consultation from ASC Career Success (<https://asccareersuccess.osu.edu/services-we-offer/resume-review>).

Informational Interview (5 points; due September 23 at 11:59 p.m., uploaded to Carmen)

By means of your networks and research (LinkedIn, business/organization Web sites, etc.) identify persons currently working in a field that you are interested in. Expect to reach out to at least four to secure an interview. Once you get a response, set up and conduct an informational interview with one of those persons to learn more about training, career trajectory, and the demands of the job. Write up a brief account of the interview (approximately 500 words) and come to class on September 24 prepared to share it and to field questions.

Optional Assignments (choose any combination to accrue 35 points)

Create or update a LinkedIn profile (5 points)

Complete additional informational interviews (5 points, repeatable twice)

Compare post-graduate training options (5 points)

Draft a graduate or professional school personal statement (5 points)

Attend and reflect upon career fairs/networking events (5 points, repeatable three times)

Complete a career coaching session with ASC Career Success (5 points)

Complete a mock interview with ASC Career Success (5 points)

Report on internship opportunities (5 points)

Develop a grant application executive summary (10 points)

Descriptions of and rubrics for each of the above are available on Carmen.

Career Pathway Analysis (10 points; due December 2 at 11:59 p.m., uploaded to Carmen)

Study a career pathway of your choice. Include an analysis of at least ten relevant job postings (training requirements, desired experience and skills, salary expectations, work conditions, etc.), identify applicable skills developed in the history major and in minors/certificates, determine prudent ways to prepare for such positions as an undergraduate, and explore the paths taken from notable persons in the field who were history majors. Your write-up should be 1000 to 1200 words. Be prepared to share your results (roughly five minutes, including Q&A) with the class. The rubric for the assignment is in the “Files” section of Carmen.

Portfolio Reflection/Personal Plan (10 points; due December 9 at 11:59 p.m., uploaded to Carmen)

You will compile an ePortfolio (select assignments) with reflection (300 – 500 words) and personal plan, including concrete steps and possible contingencies (300 – 500 words). Be prepared to share with the class.

Subject: Career Success Resources

Hi, Ray,

Thanks again for your time this afternoon! As promised, here are a few resources that I'm hoping can help support your Career Development for History Majors course:

- Carmen: I just added you to "Instructor Modules: Career Success Content." Please let me know if you have any access issues. More information about these and other resources exists within the modules, but I wanted to highlight a couple here for you:
 - Career Studio: This drop-in space, staffed by student Peer Career Coaches, may be a nice offline way to connect your students with our Center.

- o Big Interview Platform: This digital resource allows students to 1) practice and record themselves mock interviewing, and 2) use the resume AI tool to get real-time feedback that is optimized for applicant tracking systems.

If there are any other ways I can help, please let me know.

Thanks again,
Tricia
