Good afternoon,

On Tuesday, August 19th, the Arts & Humanities 2 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a 100% DL request for Philosophy 2390.

I am pleased to report that the proposal was unanimously approved with one contingency and four recommendations:

- Contingency: As of June 27th, 2025, all syllabi must have a standardized statement on intellectual diversity. This new statement may be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website in an easy to copy-and-paste format.
- Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends providing full citations for course readings (as provided in the schedule on pages 15-18 of the syllabus) to allow students an opportunity to further engage with course materials.
- Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends correcting the grading table (as found on page 7 of the syllabus), which states that the Reading Responses assignment will be 10 total, for one point each. These assignments appear to be two points each.
- Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends reorganizing the course calendar (as found on pages 15-18 of the syllabus) to be in the format of the original submission, which was reviewed on 05/09/2025. They found this format more user-friendly and believe it would benefit students.
- Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends removing the mention of prerequisites on page 2 of the syllabus, as the course no longer has any prerequisites.

I will return Philosophy 2390 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the feedback above.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts & Humanities 2 Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
