Dear Kim,

Thank you for this. I am including our Assistant Director Jeremy Fortier who chairs the curriculum committee that looks at this. We will give this a look and get back to you.

Sincerely,

Brian

Subject: Fw: Course Request - CSCFFS 3000

Good morning, Dr. Schoen,

I hope this message finds you well.

Our faculty in the Department of Human Sciences (College of Education and Human Ecology) are seeking concurrence from the Chase Center for Civics, Culture, and Society on a new course:

CSCFFS 3000: Women & Money – Citizenship in a Modern World

This course is intended for inclusion in both the General Education (GEN) curriculum under the "Citizenship" theme and the Consumer and Family Financial Services major.

As requested by OAA, we are requesting your department's review and confirmation of concurrence. Please find the relevant documents attached (curriculum entry from curriculum.osu.edu and course syllabus).

We kindly ask that you provide your response by October 30, in alignment with the university's ten-business-day guideline. I've included a few additional days in consideration of Fall Break.

Although, a review well before Oct. 30th would be most appreciated if possible as we are hoping to offer this course next semester (SP'26). The course has been reviewed and approved at all levels and will also be approved at OAA pending your concurrence. Thank you for any consideration in a prompt review, feedback (if applicable), and hopefully concurrence.

Please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions or concerns.

Make it a great day!

Tackett

Tackett,

I reviewed the course request for CSCFFS 3000. We would like you to seek concurrence from the Chase Center for Civics, Culture, and Society. Brian Schoen can assist you with the concurrence process.

I will send the course back for revision.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Katie
