Good afternoon,

On Tuesday, November 25th, the Arts and Humanities Subcommittee 1 of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new course request for Linguistics 6050.

I am pleased to report that the Subcommittee approved the request with the following feedback:

- Recommendation: The Subcommittee finds that the depth of the course is not fully conveyed in the syllabus and recommends incorporating more explanatory detail throughout the document. For example, in the course schedule, they recommend providing more concrete, actionable activities from meeting to meeting. They also recommend clarifying the additional readings materials mentioned on the first page of the syllabus.
- Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends that the department consider incorporating discussion of the evolving landscape of proposal writing in relation to AI, including its use in tasks such as literature reviews.

As a reminder, recommendations (in italics above) should be implemented when the course is next taught.

Linguistics 6050 will continue through the approval process to the Graduate School.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Hedgecoth (faculty Chair of the A&H1 Subcommittee) or me.

Best,
Jennifer
