1. Provide the rationale for proposing this course:

Ohio professionals (e.g., ESL teachers, social workers, health professionals) have expressed enormous interest in learning about recent immigrants and other Hispanics they are called on to work with, but coursework available in our department (e.g., SPANISH 689) is taught in Spanish and tailored largely to undergraduate majors. The proposed course is geared to a non-traditional audience in both its format (e.g., it will most likely be offered on Saturdays) and its content (e.g., cultural issues of professional interest).

2. Please list Majors/Minors affected by the creation of this new course. Attach revisions of all affected programs.

This course is (check one): Required on major(s)/minor(s)

A choice on major(s)/minors(s)

An elective within major(s)/minor(s)

A general elective: not open to majors

3. Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course.

A Course Development Grant from Continuing Education has been awarded to fund the first edition of this course in spring 2007. Our plan is for it to be offered every other year, thus alternating with a special edition of SPANISH 689 (also funded by CED for 2006 and 2008) taught on weekends for Spanish teachers and other educators who know Spanish and can engage in linguistic immersion.
