1. Provide the rationale for proposing this course:
In bridging the conventional, but artificial and misleading division between "premodern" and "modern" Chinese literature, the course imparts to students not only knowledge of the classical Chinese literary tradition, but it prepares students to critically examine its multifaceted impact on modern society.

2. Please list Majors/Minors affected by the creation of this new course. Attach revisions of all affected programs.
This course is (check one): Required on major(s)/minor(s) A choice on major(s)/minors(s)
 An elective within major(s)/minor(s) A general elective:

3. Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course.
This course represents an addition to the Chinese 651 & 652 series on the "History of Chinese Literature I and II" (up to the 19th nineteenth century) and expand coverage to the 20th century.
